ADVISORY – HORSHAM – Health Officials to Hold Public Meeting on PFAS Testing
Meeting to be held at Horsham Township Library

Tomorrow, the Pennsylvania Department of Health will hold a public meeting to update residents on the status of Per-and Polyfluoroalkyl Substances (PFAS) testing, answer questions and provide direction on the testing process. The meeting will take place in the meeting room at the Horsham Township Library, 435 Babylon Road, Horsham, at 5:30 p.m.

The meeting will be an opportunity for officials to discuss the start of PFAS testing of residents in Bucks and Montgomery counties. These residents are people who have been previously exposed to contaminated drinking water supplies up until July of 2016.
