

Media Release information:

What: Virtual community meeting to introduce the PFAS national health study being conducted in Warrington, Warminster, and Horsham. This health study is part of a large, multi-site health study being conducted by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) to examine possible connections between PFAS exposure in drinking water and certain human health conditions.

When: Thursday, July 9th from 7-9 pm. Those wishing to attend must register at the following link: [https://rtiorg.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN\_ ihPuREPI SZ6fqZeofXHo4Q](https://rtiorg.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_ ihPuREPI SZ6fqZeofXHo4Q)

Proposed Agenda:

Welcome and Introduction of study partners (PADOH)

General Background on PFAS contamination

Overview of the Study (RTI)

Community Assistance Panel and Future Meetings (PADOH)

Question and Answer session

Social Media:

Facebook

Join local leaders for a virtual community meeting to discuss the national Multi-site Health Study. PA DOH and its partners will be on hand to discuss the new Multi-site Health Study that examines the health effects of PFAS in drinking water. Everyone is welcome to attend. July 9 from 7-9pm use this link to register [https://rtiorg.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN\_ ihPuREPI SZ6fqZeofXHo4Q](https://rtiorg.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_ ihPuREPI SZ6fqZeofXHo4Q)

Twitter

Concerned about #PFAS? Join the community on July 9th from 7-9pm for a virtual community meeting to learn about the Multi-site Health Study. PA DOH and its partners will be on hand to discuss this study that will examine the health effects of PFAS in drinking water. Use this link to register for the meeting [https://rtiorg.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN\_ ihPuREPI SZ6fqZeofXHo4Q](https://rtiorg.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_ ihPuREPI SZ6fqZeofXHo4Q)